

Tarheelgardening.com Listing Form

Green Industry Professionals across North Carolina have an exciting new promotional tool. Tarheelgardening.com is a website designed to inform consumers about the many benefits of plants and planting North Carolina grown trees, shrubs, flowers, annuals, perennials, and turfgrass. Consumers will be able to find information about local retail nurseries, garden centers, landscapers, irrigation contractors, landscape architects, and other Green Industry Professionals. Consumers will also be able to access information about types of plants, growing information, help with plants, North Carolina's Green Industry, and much more. This website will be promoted to the general public through print, radio and possibly TV advertising, as well as through other media.

Tarheelgardening.com is a cooperative effort between the North Carolina Nursery and Landscape Association and the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Division of Marketing. Funding for development and promotion of Tarheelgardening.com is being provided in part by a Specialty Crop Block Grant from the United States Department of Agriculture. Business listings on Tarheelgardening.com are free to all qualified North Carolina Green Industry Professionals.
